Product Description

Experience the Hoosier Nest Play System that packs an impressive array of features into a compact and versatile structure. Designed to cater to children of all ages, this play set offers a thrilling spiral slide for those seeking exhilaration and a smaller wave slide perfect for younger adventurers. The spiraling shape of the large slide adds an extra element of excitement while ensuring a safe and controlled descent. Whether kids choose the transfer station stairs or the vertical snake climber, they'll have multiple options to access the play structure, enhancing the sense of adventure and exploration.

The Hoosier Nest Play System offers a range of engaging activities to keep children entertained. With three activity panels, including interactive elements like the tic-tac-toe panel, gear panel, and bubble panel, young minds will be stimulated and their creativity will soar. The single drum and rain wheel provide additional sensory experiences, allowing children to explore their musical talents and engage in imaginative play.
